REFERENCE LETTER

I have been working with Dominik for several years. On behalf of my company, he regularly creates high-quality Landing Page content and blog entries for companies in various fields. He finds himself best in industries related to, among others: affiliates, modern technologies, furniture, dietetics, psychology, and natural cosmetics.

Dominik is an excellent copywriter who pays attention to details. I also employ him to create content strategies for my clients' blogs. He can skillfully select keywords and topics so that the entire concept is tailored to the individual preferences of a given client.

I recommend working with this copywriter. You will surely be satisfied with blog entries and Landing Page texts created by Dominik. You can order content from any industry.
