REFERENCE LETTER

Dominik has been running my agency's SEO/SEM blog since early 2023. He is the best copywriter I have worked with - especially regarding specialists/technical topics.

He creates the highest-quality comparisons, listings, and rankings. He is also excellent at preparing standard "How-to" blog articles. Each entry reaches at least the top ten of Google, translating into numerous customer inquiries and higher authority of our SEOgroup blog.

I must also point out that Dominik adds many infographics and screenshots with the most important information to the articles, which makes it easier for customers to understand the article. Thanks to this, entries meet the assumptions of "Search Intent."

If you are looking for a technical copywriter to create substantive SEO/SEM blog articles, you should start working with Dominik.

Kind regards,
